Primary Exempt Purpose

Primary Exempt Purpose

SpectorDance's mission is "To Create and Present Dance that Makes a Difference!" Everything we do-whether creative, pedagogical, community-oriented, or even managerial-serves this greater purpose. This mission uniquely defines all our work. Our vision is "A world where everyone is connected, informed, and inspired through the beauty and power of dance." We live in a world that has become divided in many ways: wealthy and poor, urban and rural, politically progressive and conservative, educated and uneducated. We see dance, grounded in the human body we all share, as a means of coming together communally. Moreover, we see dance as a vehicle for education and enlightenment. It can convey the truth amid the flurry of falsehoods. Finally, dance is not passive-for the audience as well as the dancer. Dance at its best can inform, build deep empathy, motivate and inspire action, and transform both participants and viewers. It is not just contemplation or artistic pleasure.

First Program Service Accomplishments DescriptionDescription

collaborations with Tom Little Bear Nason (from the Esselen Tribe of Monterey County) and Dr. Chad Hamill (from the Spokane Tribe). Tom provided a generous interview with insights into the Native American approach to managing fire and living in harmony with nature. Chad composed original music and was a consultant on the culturally sensitive aspects of this work. Wildfires demonstrates how dance can build bridges among diverse parts of our community, help us to heal the past, and move into the future with greater understanding. Ocean Trilogy is inspired by interviews with renown ocean scientists from the Monterey Bay Aquarium Research Institute about the threats confronting our ocean and the hopeful solutions from cutting-edge ocean science research. Common Ground is inspired by collaborations with the United Farm Workers and the National Steinbeck Center about the problems and possibilities in agriculture in California today. We also offer creative movement workshops that explore themes for our free performance works. All three works are examples of the SpectorDance mission to create and present dance that makes a difference.

be key to offering our programs. In 2024, we initiated and planned for the 1st "King City Dance Week" in partnership with the Stanton Theater. Building on our past successes, we are thrilled to expand our partnership with the Stanton Theater to expand contemporary dance opportunities for King City audiences. King City is an under-resourced, agricultural community in Monterey County. In 2024, we initiated and planned for 5th annual "Ocean Arts Festival." For this event, we established a new partnership with the YMCA of the Monterey Peninsula. With their four locations throughout Monterey County, we see an exciting opportunity to broaden the impact of this evolving festival.
