During the past several years, LandWatch continued to grow its membership while maintaining close connections with our founding members and core supporters. We continued our mission of reviewing and commenting on land-use projects' environmental documents. This is revealed through our involvement in opposing, along with the community, the Monterey Downs project in Fort Ord, the Ferrini Ranch project in Salinas, and other low density, sprawling subdivisions. LandWatch's work is also effective as seen in our support of the Casa Boronda affordable housing project. We continue to keep the public informed about potential projects in Monterey County, and we help and promote opportunities for the public to engage with this process.
